

Viva Healthy Life - The Alternative Medicine Clinic in Philadelphia

Victor Tsan - Medical Director of the center has 37+ years of academical and clinical experience in Internal Medicine (OB-GYN, Neurology, and Psychiatry). Specialized in Clinical Hypnotherapy, Reiki Energy Healing, Psychotherapy, Homeopathy, and Neuro-Linguistic Programming (NLP). Founder, Designer, and Developer of Stomach Mind Band and Anti-Tobacco program. This Alternative Medicine Center is conveniently located in the heart of Northeast Philadelphia close to major roads, stores, and public transportation.

We recognize each patient as a distinctive organism, rather than an instance of a certain illness. Sickness at the same time is an outcome of corporeal, spiritual, expressive, social and ecological disproportion. Treatment, for that reason, takes place naturally when these pieces of existence are brought into a suitable set of scales. Using Acupuncture, Homeopathy, Reiki and Clinical Hypnosis, we teach your organism to heal itself.

Traditional Chinese Medicine and Acupuncture in Philadelphia]

Viva Healthy Life is the Holistic Center in Philadelphia. Located at the heart of the North East region of Philadelphia, this center is quickly becoming the most influential office of Acupuncture in Philadelphia. For over four thousand years acupuncture has been used to treat a variety of diseases and ensure health and longevity in every individual. Over four thousand years acupuncture has healed millions of people and now my fellow Philadelphian it can heal you. Acupuncture is one of the main specialties here at Viva Healthy Life. We are proud to say that a majority of our customers and patients testify that they would recommend acupuncture treatments to their friends and family. A large percent of the population are skeptical of acupuncture treatments because it is different and not very well known. Others are afraid of the actual needles and fear that the needles cause a lot of pain. However, those few who are brave enough to try acupuncture treatments end up reaping the rewards. The patients that visit us claim that after every acupuncture session they feel as though they are rejuvenated by them. The treatments restore balance on the physical as well as the emotional level, allowing you to live life to the fullest. To those people who are afraid of needles, have no fear; the needles do not hurt. I am not just saying it the same way a dentist would comfort a child. The treatments are generally painless. The needles used by our practitioners are about as thick as a strand of hair, so even individuals with sensitive skin can receive painless treatments that will help their health tremendously.

Reiki in Philadelphia at Viva Healthy Life

Unlike acupuncture which has been around for over four thousand years Reiki therapy was developed very recently. In 1922, a Japanese Buddhist named Mikao Usui developed Reiki on his path to enlightenment. While on the mountain Usui experienced something he has never experienced before. The monk became attuned to the spiritual life force called Ki. Usui learned to channel that energy and use it to restore balance in the human body. And so at the beginning of the 20th century, one of the most powerful and influential healing practices was created. Reiki in Philadelphia is becoming one of the most sought after therapies in alternative medicine. Every day, here at Viva healthy Life people inquire about Reiki treatments. As more and more people begin to stray away from traditional medicine the popularity of Reiki in Philadelphia increases exponentially. Reiki is a spiritual treatment and many seek the help of Reiki practitioners at Viva Healthy Life to help restore emotional balance. Reiki, however, is very effective in treating a wide spectrum of diseases and afflictions. The therapy treats anything from minor colds to serious infections. Here at Viva Healthy Life Reiki has been very effective in helping reduce and in rare cases cure the symptoms of terminally ill patients. Many people that undergo chemotherapy look for practitioners of Reiki in Philadelphia to help handle the side effects of chemotherapy as well as to gain some moral support.

Victor Tsan is a Master of Reiki therapy. Trained by world famous Reiki masters, Victor Tsan has dedicated his life to helping people live healthier lives. If you are located in Philadelphia then there is no better option for Reiki in Philadelphia than Dr. Tsan. Every day Victor Tsan treats patients with Reiki therapy. When asked what kind of effect the treatments have on him he says that ?Reiki therapy takes a lot of concentration and energy to be able to transfer the Ki energy to the patient so some days it leaves you emotionally drained but at the end of the day it feels good to know that you are helping people. Dr. Tsan sees many patients that are suffering from a variety of afflictions. He has helped people overcome allergies, chronic pain, arthritis, anemia, anxiety and depression, fertility disorders, heartburn, osteoporosis, headaches, the flu, lack of energy and much more. ### Homeopathy In Philadelphia at Viva Healthy Life

Homeopathy plays a big role in the lives of many Philadelphians. As the popularity of the remedies spreads throughout the city, many people come to Viva Healthy Life ? The Center for Holistic medicine to seek advice on which remedies are right for their needs or illnesses. Homeopathy is becoming extremely popular because modern medicine fails to provide the treatments that are specific to every individual. Modern medicine focuses on the need to remove or alleviate the symptoms of a disease without actually treating the source of the illness. The main advantage of homeopathy is that because of the way the remedies are developed, the patient can get rid of the source of the disease. The remedies are designed to fit the individual person so the number of remedies that exist exceeds four thousand. However because there are so many remedies the need to determine the right remedy is crucially important. You want to make sure that the remedy you choose will be quick, effective, and that it will not lead to undesired complications. That is where we come in. Here at Viva Healthy Life we are lucky to have Dr. Tsan as the specialist of homeopathy. Victor Tsan's extensive education, knowledge of the remedies and companies, as well as over 35 years of experience make him a world homeopath. In his long career, Victor Tsan has helped many patients overcome many different complaints including chronic pain, anxiety, allergies, asthma, insomnia, infertility, and much more. The majority of the people that get purchase remedies with Victor Tsan's help experience a positive change after only a few applications. After the full course of treatment is completed the signs of the illness will have disappeared entirely.

Perhaps the best thing about Viva Healthy Life's treatments of Homeopathy in Philadelphia is that the treatments and remedies provided have virtually no side effects. The remedies provided by Victor Tsan are perfectly safe to ensure that you can get the treatment you want without having to sacrifice other parts of your health. So if you are ready to start living without the shackles of illness visit our office to obtain a remedy that is right for you. Clinical hypnosis is a growing Practice in Philadelphia. Many people struggle with many different psychological conditions that could be solved with clinical hypnosis here at Viva Healthy Life. Many people seek the help of a hypnotherapist to find a way to overcome bad habits or to help develop the motivation and self-esteem to succeed in various areas of life. While these are all very important they are just the tip of the iceberg when it comes to the effectiveness of hypnosis to treat various conditions. Clinical hypnotherapy has been proven to help people quit smoking and drinking, helped anorexic people develop healthy eating habits. Many people seek the help of hypnotherapists in order to get help with losing weight.

Hypnotherapy at viva healthy life is conducted by Victor Tsan an honorable Member of the Royal Institute of Hypnotherapy and Psychotherapy, in London, England. Dr. Tsan is a very talented professional that can help you overcome the bad habits, the urge to smoke or drink, as well as help you lose weight with his stomach mind band procedure. The patients that come to see Dr. Tsan often expect the process of hypnosis to be a lot different compared to what it actually is. Most people that experience real hypnosis for the first time at Viva Healthy Life are astonished by the experience. A lot of people that have visited other hypnotists in Philadelphia or listened to the recordings which were supposed to hypnotize them never really experienced the real process. When the people are hypnotized for the first time they think something esoteric is going on, when really all that happened was that the patient was simply in a trance. Hypnosis is a very powerful tool to help people change their lives for the better but it is very important to find the right professional. Here at Viva Healthy life our internationally famous hypnotherapist, Dr. Tsan will help you begin to live a productive healthy lifestyle for the rest of your life.
